

Portfolio

Client:

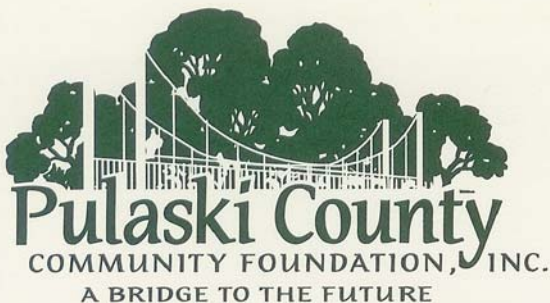

Pulaski County Community Foundation

Problem:

The Pulaski County Community Foundation was in need of fundraising brochure. They were under tight time and budget constraints.

Solution:

Caribou Communications created a compelling and inexpensive brochure to meet the needs of the PCCF. The fundraising brochure was mailed to thousands of Pulaski County residents.

Members of the Board of the Pulaski County Community Foundation invite you to join them in a year-end initiative to build resources that will preserve the unique values of Pulaski County.

The PCCF Bridge:
Spanning a Proud History and a Hopeful Future

- Built by you and your neighbors to extend the caring spirit of Pulaski County.
- To connect you in meaningful ways to the crucial issues that face the county.
- Reaching from a solid bank of assets to a future of confidence and awareness for thousands of Pulaski County citizens.

Your gift to this effort will address your special interests. And, regardless of its size, it will be carefully monitored by our professional staff and dedicated board members, assuring you that your philanthropy will make an on-going impact.

Give today, to do your part: whether it be with a generous year-end gift to increase the power of funds that already exist to address the county's needs; or to create a new endowment to meet issues that are dear to your heart.

Build your part of the PCCF Bridge.
Lend your spirit and your resources to the Pulaski County Community Foundation.

2006 Board of Directors

Brad Neihouser, President

Robert Klitzman, Vice President

Daniel Dolezal, Secretary

Dennis Cowley, Treasurer

Sue Alexander

Tim Alexander

Amy Bean

Marylou Bonnell

Tom Bonnell

James Ehlers

Delores Galbreath

Cyndi Garnett

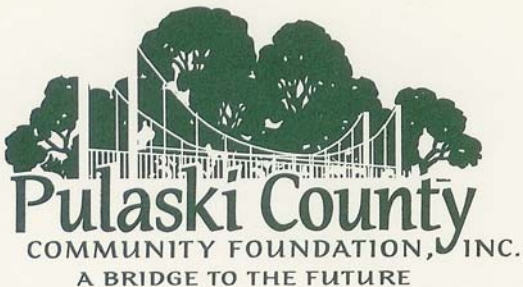

Jason Hague

Charles Mellon

Stacey Mrak

Robert Simpson

Wendy G. Rose, Executive Director

127 E Pearl Street, Winamac, IN 46996
(574) 946-0906 | www.pulaskionline.org